Dear Dr. Lin,

You recently kindly reviewed the original version of following manuscript, submitted to Games:

Title: The Exact Query Complexity of Yes-No Permutation Mastermind

The authors have provided a new version and a covering letter where they reply to the referees' comments.

We now invite you to review the revised version. Please inform us within three days as to whether you believe the manuscript has been significantly improved and now warrants publication in Games. If you need more time to check the revised version, please let the editorial office know. The latest manuscript and the review report form are available at the following link:

We look forward to hearing from you.

Kind regards,

Sammi Wang
Assistant Editor
